K-Seal ULTIMATE will repair most leaks in the head, head gasket and block and has a very high success rate. If K-Seal ULTIMATE is used as directed and does not successfully repair the coolant leak, or a repair made with K-Seal ULTIMATE fails within 28 days, we will provide a refund of the original purchase value up to the maximum MSRP ($34.99) or a replacement bottle. In the event of a claim simply contact us via our website www.kseal.com or email info@kseal.com with your full contact details, proof of purchase from an authorized K-Seal reseller, vehicle details and a description of the original problem. *We will also need proof that the original coolant leak problem was not sealed. This could be a repair invoice, parts invoice or junk yard note. Any claims must be received within 28 days from applying K-Seal. 1 claim permitted per vehicle.
