K-Seal ULTIMATE will repair most leaks in the head, head gasket and block and has a very high success rate. If K-Seal is used as directed and does not successfully repair the coolant leak, or a repair made with K-Seal ULTIMATE fails within 28 days, we will provide a refund of the original purchase value up to the maximum RRP (£39.99) or a replacement bottle.

*We will also need evidence that the original coolant leak problem was not sealed. Previously accepted examples have included:

Breakdown note or receipt from Recovery Company for transporting vehicle following the purchase date for the product. Mechanics invoice/quote for head gasket repair post K-Seal use. Photographs of self-repair (Include vehicle number plate). Receipt for parts purchased to perform mechanical repair IE Head Gasket kit. SORN receipt of the vehicle being off road or scan of updated V5C (Log Book) documentation. CoD (Certificate of Destruction).
